

Member of the Competition Board

Fevzi ÖZKAN

Fevzi Özkan was born in 1959 in the Dinar district of Afyon, and he graduated from the Department of Finance of the Ankara University Faculty of Political Sciences.

Fevzi Özkan started his professional life in 1981 as an assistant auditor at the Ministry of Trade. Between 1985 and 1996 he served as Auditor, Chief Auditor and Deputy Director General for Domestic Trade at the Ministry of Industry and Commerce. In 1998, Özkan was appointed to the Competition Authority as the Group Head for Department III, and he served as the Head of the Administrative and Financial Affairs Department, as Vice President and as Chief Advisor of the Competition Authority.

Özkan speaks English at the KPDS (Foreign Language Proficiency Examination for State Employees) B level. He is married and has 3 children.